When you support the arts
You change lives.

As a patron of the arts, you know the tremendous impact the United Arts Council has on making Greensboro a better place to live. You understand that the arts are essential for educating our children and growing our local economy.

Thanks to you, the Arts Council has increased funding for many organizations and projects and with your help, we'll be able to do even more.

When you support the arts
You change lives.

Thank you!
